

PEER VIEWS: Student Led Art Talks

Exhibition Research and Presentation Project led by several staff members at the Lawrence Wilson Art Gallery and co-presented by the Art Gallery of Western Australia Voluntary Guides.

---

UWA STUDENT CALLOUT / UWA Accredited Badge

---

Students are invited to partake in professional development training to prepare them to present public art talks to their peers. Students will participate in workshops from Lawrence Wilson Art Gallery staff as well as Art Gallery of Western Australia Voluntary Guides.

Outcomes

Students will each research an artwork on display in the Lawrence Wilson Art Gallery exhibition: Stuffed, Bolstered and Upholstered. Students will collaborate to present public talks and write extended label texts on their findings.

The primary outcomes of the project will be the ability to summarize research for public accessibility and confidence to speak about art publicly.

Commitment

3 x weekly training workshops in preparation for 2 x public presentations.

Workshops will be run weekly on Tuesdays from 12-2pm at the Lawrence Wilson Art Gallery. Students will be responsible for progressing their research between the sessions.

Registration

To register your interest in this UWA accredited badge email Lee Kinsella at lee.kinsella@uwa.edu.au by Friday 13th September, 2024.
