

TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE – ATAR MUSIC
MUSIC ANALYSIS

Take the A Train – Questions

- 1. What social and political phenomena were swing music and dance initially shaped by?
 - a) The American Civil War
 - b) Racial segregation, economic depression and prohibition
 - c) World War II and the moon-landing
 - d) The rise of North American nationalism

- 2. True or False: Ella Fitzgerald made the first recording of 'Take the A Train'

- 3. Who composed 'Take the A Train'
 - a) Duke Ellington
 - b) Ella Fitzgerald
 - c) Billy Strayhorn
 - d) Irving Mills

- 4. Scat singing was most strongly associated with Louis Armstrong, but Ella Fitzgerald was also highly influential in this vocal style of bop improvisation. What was a distinctive feature of her scat singing?
 - a) It was particularly quick and virtuosic
 - b) She used onomatopoeia more than other scat singers
 - c) She included musical references to other songs in her improvisations
 - d) She was the first female performer to adopt this style of singing

SCROLL TO PAGE 2 FOR ANSWERS

Take the A Train – Answers

- 1. What social and political phenomena were swing music and dance initially shaped by?
 - a) The American Civil War
 - b) Racial segregation, economic depression and prohibition
 - c) World War II and the moon-landing
 - d) The rise of North American nationalism
- 2. True or False: Ella Fitzgerald made the first recording of 'Take the A Train'

False
- 3. Who composed 'Take the A Train'
 - a) Duke Ellington
 - b) Ella Fitzgerald
 - c) Billy Strayhorn
 - d) Irving Mills
- 4. Scat singing was most strongly associated with Louis Armstrong, but Ella Fitzgerald was also highly influential in this vocal style of bop improvisation. What was a distinctive feature of her scat singing?
 - a) It was particularly quick and virtuosic
 - b) She used onomatopoeia more than other scat singers
 - c) She included musical references to other songs in her improvisations
 - d) She was the first female performer to adopt this style of singing