

UWA Law Review Vol. 52 (1)

Due Process or Due Proceeds? Confiscation and Related AML Laws in and beyond Australia Radha Ivory, Gregory Dale and Arie Freiberg	1
Criminal Property Confiscation and Third-Party Rights: Giving the Hedgehog a Foxy Tail Natalie Skead and Sarah Murray	9
The Principled and Practical Limits to Unexplained Wealth Orders Liz Campbell and Aine Clancy	29
'Know Your Customer' in the Digital Age: Challenges of Privacy, Data Security and the Speed of Technological Development Jeannie Marie Paterson	53
Like for Like (and Dislike for Dislike?): Forfeiting Substitute Property under Australia's Proceeds of Crime Statutes Gregory Dale	83
A Symbolic Defeat? Exploring Symbolism and Failure in the Social Reuse of Confiscated Mafia Real Estate in Italy Amber Phillips	101