

Health Humanities Symposium:

Wellbeing and Practice of Health Professionals

Application of Health Humanities for research and education

- Date: Friday, 21 October 2022
- Venue: commencing in Woolnough Lecture Theatre in Geology and moving to Lawrence Wilson Art Gallery (LWAG)
- Website: <https://www.uwa.edu.au/schools/allied-health/Health-Professions-Education/Health-Humanities-Symposium-2022>

Program

Time (AWST)	Presentation Title / Event		Speaker	Venue
0900-0930	Welcome and Registration Acknowledgement of Country		Professor Sandra Carr- face to face and opening of Webinar	Webinar, viewed in Woolnough Lecture Theatre and online
0930-1000	How can Acting and Theatre Skills Support Health Professions Education?		Associate Professor Claire Hooker U Sydney	Webinar, viewed in Woolnough and online
1000-1030	Modelling Disease: Wax Specimens and the Study of Illness in the Nineteenth Century		Associate Professor Emily Brink UWA	Webinar, viewed in Woolnough and online
1030-1100	How we Talk about Health: Exploring Trends in Emotional Language about Health and Illness in Online Discourse		Dr Francesco De Toni UWA	Webinar, viewed in Woolnough and online
1100-1130	Morning Tea			On verandah outside Geology-need Guild
1130-1300	Workshop One: Developing Learners Skills in Close Attention, Perspective and Empathy through Narrative Medicine Prof Sandra Carr & Dr Kelby Smith-Han	OR	Workshop Two: Developing Learners Skills in Observation and Reflection through Object Based Learning Janice Lally & Dr John Terry	Face to Face only in LWAG. Some pre-recorded video with key principles will be available for online participants
1300-1345	Lunch			Served on LWAG Verandah
1345-1430	Speculative Pathology: A Medical Humanities Teaching Initiative More than an Arts Class: Promoting Social and Emotional Wellbeing for Young People The Changing Experience of Clinical Empathy for Australian Medical Professionals		Dr Nicole Shepherd et al UQ Dr Leanne Fried et al Telethon Kids Institute Jenny Chang	Webinar, viewed in Woolnough and online
1430-1530	Keynote Presentation 'What's Up With Everyone? Creative Health, Practice and the Public'		Professor Paul Crawford University of Nottingham	Webinar, viewed in Woolnough and online
1530	Official Close of Symposium for online		Prof Sandra Carr UWA	Webinar, viewed in Woolnough and online
1540-1700	LWAG Tours Refreshments and Canapé's			Lawrence Wilson Art Gallery