

Revised: 10 March 2020

The University of Western Australia
UWA Business School

BATEMAN MEMORIAL LECTURE SERIES, 1982 – 2019

Year	Author	Title of lecture
1982	Larry Sjaastad, University of Chicago	The Failure of Economic Liberalism in the Southern Cone
1990	Walter Eltis, Oxford University	How Inflation Undermines Industrial Success
1991	Douglas Vickers, University of Massachusetts Amherst	The Long Run and the Short
1992	Jurg Niehans, University of Bern	Revolution and Evolution in Economic Theory
1993	Paul Spahn, Goethe University	The Bundesbank, Maastricht, and World Financial Markets
1996	D. Gale Johnson, University of Chicago	China's Rural and Agricultural Reforms: Successes and Failures
1998	Ray Ball, University of Rochester	The Internationalisation of Accounting and Corporate Governance
1999	John Taylor, Stanford University	Implications for Monetary Policy of the Long US Boom
2000	Les Hosking, CEO, AXISS	The Future of Financial Centres in a Technology Driven Marketplace
2007	Martin Dufwenberg, University of Arizona	Psychological Games: Theory and Experimental Evidence
2008	Stephen Zeff, Rice University
2009	David Hendry, Oxford University	Empirical Model Discovery
2011	Peter Phillips, Yale University	Exploring the Mystery of Trends and Bubbles
2016	Jerry Hausman, MIT	Future Productivity: Pessimistic and Optimistic Viewpoints
2018	Philip Gaetjens, Australian Treasury	Australian Economic Management, Reforms and Prospects
2019	Shangjin Wei, Columbia University	Beyond a Trade War: The Future of the Chinese Economy