

Symposium Schedule

Monday May 10th 2021

08:30	Guest Arrival and Registration – First Floor Foyer
	Seminar Room 4
09:00	Acknowledgement of Country Housekeeping- Sandra Carr & Sue Alexander
09:05	Welcome address - Professor David Sadler
09:20	Keynote address - Associate Professor Monica Moran
09:50– 10:15	Morning Tea – First Floor Foyer
	CONCURRENT SESSIONS – ORAL PRESENTATIONS
10:15– 12:00	Seminar Room 4 Session 1:	Formal Dining Room Session 2:	Seminar Room 3 Session 3:
	Skills required for contemporary health education Chair: Brid Phillips	Scholarship of clinical education Chair: Sinead Kado	The role of consumers in health education Chair: Helen Wright
10:15	Peer Support Training Program: a sustainable evidence-based training framework for providing peer support in a train the trainer model. Anita Smith	Are workshops enough to develop medical educators in the Pacific? A qualitative case study. Sinead Kado	Why is patient safety a challenge? Insights from PoMS studies. Paul McGurgan
10:30	Preparing Graduate Registered Nurses for Independence in Aged Care - A Delphi study of skills and level of performance Di Piper	Factors influencing occupational therapy education to stroke survivors and their caregivers along the continuum of care in WA: Occupational therapists' perspectives. Nicole Sanders	Co-design of an education program for Emergency Department staff. Jane Pearce
10:45	Hybrid teaching - the mule of higher education: gems and snares of synchronous teaching in a social work context. Stephan Lund	Evaluation of Clinical Education in the Doctor of Medicine. Beatrice Tucker	My Health in My Hands - a codesigned youth health animation. Jessica Hillier
11:00	Using psychometric analysis to inform assessment in medical education. Rashmi Watson	Carrying the load: Perceptions of General Paediatric Registrars following implementation of a new roster. Sarah Trinder	Watson the wellness dog: The impact of his attendance in class. Lisa Holmes
11:15	The New R.E.G Workshop – Scaffolding the transition to Registrar Joanne Scammell	Narratives of Progression: Sharing the learning through difficult academic progression. Sandra Carr	Refugee Virtual Learning via REFLEX Platform - student-created learning resources. Aurelne Thian
11:30	Exploration of students' experiences with a novel integrated research training platform: A qualitative descriptive study.	UWA SAH staff experiences transitioning to teaching online during COVID.	Partnering with consumers: translating the theory into training for the clinical workforce. Michelle Cork

	Ruolin Qin	Katrine Nehyba
11:45	Supporting and engaging our Heads of Specialty.	Embedding strengths based conversations through action learning	Emotions in health communication: towards evidenced-based resources for health-care students.
12:00–13:00	Joanne Scammell	Susan Alexander	Francesco DeToni
Lunch – First Floor Foyer
13:00	Seminar Room 4 Keynote address - Ivan Lin & Dawn Bessarab
13:30	Seminar Room 4 Panel Discussion Chair: Prof Alison Jones. Panellists: Sandra Carr, Tony Celenza, Sue Alexander; Penny Keogh
14:15-14:30	Short Break
CONCURRENT SESSIONS – ORAL PRESENTATIONS
14:30	Seminar Room 4 Skills required for contemporary health education. Chair: Rory Trawber	Formal Dining Room Scholarship of clinical education. Chair: Sue Alexander	Seminar Room 3 The role of consumers in health education. Chair: Jane Pearce
14:30	“Online Mindfulness Training for WA Medical Students” Sarah Moore	Multiple attempts at a high-stakes postgraduate exam - exploring the impact of failure and how trainees achieve success. Mary Pinder	Consumers as educators in healthcare. Susie May
14:45	Art meets Allied Health in developing skills required for contemporary health education. Janice Lally	The power of a Framework to Support Workplace Learning Sue Alexander	The use of creative writing and staged readings to foster empathetic awareness and critical thinking in health humanities students. Brid Phillips
15:00	Medical Education in the COVID-19 era; Transitioning to Distance Learning. Sarah Lutz	Effect of facilitators on student engagement during a CAP workshop. Alana Rowick	TRACS Aboriginal Person Centred Care Training Michelle Sultan
15:15	Developing the hard skills of courage, connection and resilience in health professions students. Liza Seubert	Evaluating a professionalism assessment tool for pharmacy students during community placement. Amanda Mannolini	Violence and aggression in the emergency department: Virtual Reality training for healthcare professionals Josh Johnson
15:30	Promoting balance in the workplace by practising compassionate self-care. Helen Maclean	Being on Track - the lived experience of transition to the Staff Development Nurse role. Penny Keogh	Depth of Field: Exploring minds, hearts and voice - evaluating an anti-stigma educational resource. Kerry Whitelaw / Liza Seubert
16:00	Maintaining simulation education during COVID pandemic. Rory Trawber	Allied health web-based research pathway: A research capacity-building tool. Susan Taylor
16:15	Seminar Room 4 Close and Evaluation- Katrine Neyhba

Please see Symposium Program Booklet for online access details.