

UWA 2018/19 Summer School

Spanish Studies 1 (SPAN1401)

Welcome

Thank you for your interest in UWA's annual Summer School, an additional teaching period for students and an opportunity for people to pursue an area of interest or up-skill and progress their career to the next level.

This year's UWA Summer School runs from late November 2018 until early February 2019 and includes nearly 60 units.

Our Summer School units cover a range of engaging topics across various disciplines and embed practical application and experiential learning.

I encourage you to visit study.uwa.edu.au/summer, the UWA Summer School website for more information about all units on offer, the enrolment process and available services.

We look forward to welcoming you to the UWA Community this summer.

Explore introductory Spanish grammar and vocabulary in this engaging, hands-on, and culturally rich unit, and learn to speak and write simple phrases.

Description:

This unit offers an introduction to Spanish grammar and vocabulary to enable students to communicate both orally and in writing in simple situations. It develops cultural and linguistic awareness and focuses on contemporary spoken and written languages used in Spain today.

Learning outcomes:

In this unit, you will:

- develop elementary skills in reading, writing, listening and speaking in the Spanish language
- be familiar with sociolinguistic conventions in Spanish
- have an elementary knowledge of culture and society in Spanish-speaking countries;
- develop independent learning skills and interpersonal skills; and
- have an increased awareness of language and language use in both Spanish and English.

Lecturer:

Dr Anna Gadd

Dr Anna Gadd completed her PhD, "Australia Translated: A source-oriented translation of Elizabeth Jolley's Mr Scobie's Riddle", at UWA. She currently teaches and coordinates units in Spanish, Italian, and translation studies. She is passionate about the teaching of foreign languages, particularly Italian and Spanish, and the use of social media and innovate modern teaching methods in the foreign language classroom. The reward of seeing students progress from absolute beginners to advanced speakers fuels her enthusiasm for teaching. She is currently translating a collection of short novels and contemporary Italian poetry.
